Tour Wallingford This Weekend!

This fully renovated 1910 Arts and Crafts is now on the market. This remarkable home features a formal entry way that opens to a grand living room with high ceilings, hardwood floors and a mahogany surrounded fireplace. This home is a true joy for the whole family! Kids will have loads of fun playing hide and seek in all the nooks and crannies, and adults will delight in the chef's kitchen, wine cellar and outdoor dining area. This is truly a gem of the neighborhood.

Open House: March 3rd and 4th, from 1-4 PM.

While you are in Wallingford, why don't you make a day of exploring all the culinary delights the neighborhood has to offer.

You can start your day by grabbing a coffee and a freshly baked croissant-based cinnamon roll at Sea Wolf. This is a family owned bakery that features locally sourced flours and the skilled craftsmanship of brothers Kit and Jesse Schumann. It's a little hard to find, but well worth the trip!

Located at 3622 Stone Way N. Seattle, WA 98103.

If you still have some time to spare before the open house at 1 PM, you can walk down to the water and grab lunch at the award winning Westward. This full-service restaurant offers some of the best views of the city. They also have an outdoor fire pit, so if you are one of the lucky ones, you can cozy up near the fire and enjoy their amazing brunch!

Located at 2501 N Northlake Way, Seattle, WA 98103

If you are looking for a casual spot to round off the day after you tour the home, I have many suggestions!

Bizarro Italian Cafe is my favorite go-to! It's fun, quirky and good for the whole family. Pablo y Pablo has a great happy hour. And if it's just the two of you, Cantinetta is perfect for a candlelit dinner.

Whatever it is your heart desires to eat, you will find it in Wallingford!
